

Kevin Purcell

conductor • musical director • composer • orchestrator

www.kevinpurcell.com.au

www.australiandiscoveryorchestra.com

Management

(Worldwide)

Francine Fletcher
Fletcher Associates
Studio One, 25 Parkway
London N20 0XN
T: +44 208 361 8061
E: info@fletcherassociates.net
www.fletcherassociates.net

Kevin Purcell

conductor • musical director • composer • orchestrator

Kevin is the Principal Conductor of the Australian Discovery Orchestra and Artistic Director of the biennial Sir Arnold Bax Music Festival. The ADO comprises 64 professional orchestral musicians from across Australia predominantly performing the outstanding, but under-represented orchestral repertoire, live in-concert. The orchestra also maintains an active recording schedule both for its own projects and as a per-service orchestra for international touring artists.

Since being offered a scholarship to study instrumental conducting at the Moscow Conservatory of Music with Gennady Rozdhestvensky and Leonid Nikolaev in 1991-2, immediately followed by receiving Opera Australia's Willem van Otterloo Scholarship to study Opera conducting with Glyndebourne Opera music director, Myer Fredman in 1993, Kevin has pursued a career that has taken him all around the world.

"Kevin Purcell knows all about entertainment..."

Elizabeth Fortescue
The Daily Telegraph Mirror

He has recently been awarded the prestigious GOI-IES scholarship for advanced conducting studies in Ireland from 2022.

Kevin first came to prominence in 1994 winning the Sir Charles Mackerras Conductor's Prize in London, going on to assist the late maestro at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, Welsh National Opera, BBC Philharmonic, London Philharmonic Orchestra, and the Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment over several years.

In 1995, Kevin was further honored with The Tait Memorial Trust Conductor Award with funding for two-years of study at the Janáčkova akademie múzických umění v Brně (JAMU) in the Czech Republic to study conducting with the legendary Czech pedagogue, Otakar Trhlík. In this period, Kevin conducted a vast repertoire of treasured Czech music, including an invitation from San Diego Opera to assist on a production of Rusalka with Renée Fleming.

Other musical direction distinctions have included graduate conducting studies at Bard College (USA) and The Conductors Institute with the late Harold Farberman.

Kevin Purcell

conductor • musical director • composer • orchestrator

Kevin has conducted orchestras all over the world, including the Ensemble Intercontemporain in Paris, Bratislava Studio Symphony Orchestra, The Synchron Stage Orchestra (Wien), Wien Chamber Orchestra, Philharmonic Orchestra Hradec Králové, Beethoven Chamber Orchestra, Königsgrätz Philharmonic, West Bohemian Philharmony Mariánské Lázně, Georgian State Television and Radio Orchestra (in a live television broadcast), Dinu Lipatti Philharmonic and the Silesian State Opera being amongst the numerous orchestras he has led over the last thirty-five years.

As a musical director in theatre, Kevin has most recently worked in London conducting Wicked at the London Apollo Theatre and appointed musical director for the first UK/Eire National Tour (2013). He has had a long association with RUG and Cameron Mackintosh Ltd. having worked a number of musicals in London's West End, including two years as MD for CATS (1996-7) in the original New London Theatre production, and for the premiere production in South Korea (2003).

In March 2018, Kevin made a long-awaited recording debut with the release on Divine Art Records of previously un-recorded symphonic concert music of Grammy Award-winning and 7-times Emmy nominated American composer, Nan Schwartz to unanimous international critical acclaim.

Kevin's forthcoming album, recorded with the Australian Discovery Orchestra, comprises never previously recorded Broadway songs by 16 of the most exciting new writers composing for the American Musical Theatre today.

The album, 16 STORIES, will be released in the second-half 2021 on the Broadway Records™ label with an accompanying 1-hour documentary of the making of the album on BroadwayHD.

With support from both composer trusts and their respective music publishers, his current recording projects include premiere recordings of mid-20th Century British television operas commissioned by the BBC. The first disc will be Malcolm Arnold's Parasol in 2022; the year of the composer's Centenary, followed by The Olympians by Sir Arthur Bliss in 2024.

Kevin also maintains an active career as a composer of Broadway musicals. His latest show, Castle Gillian, written with long-time collaborator, Victor Kazan, will be released digitally in early 2022 on multiple platforms in tandem with Ambisonic (Lossless Audio) and stereo format soundtracks available from Apple Music and Broadway Records respectively.

Kevin Purcell

conductor • musical director • composer • orchestrator

As conductor:

"The superb Bratislava Studio Symphony Orchestra, magisterially conducted by Kevin Purcell, who also helms the Synchron Stage Orchestra of Vienna in the first four tracks of the CD, plays Broadstock's and Schwartz's eminently tonal, richly melodic music with the same care it would give a Beethoven symphony."

Rafael de Acha

www.rafaelmusicnotes.com

"Conductor...Kevin Purcell...drew moving and amazingly cohesive results from his forces. Strings were sweet-sounding with clarity and excellent balance maintained in the orchestral texture."

Peter Donnelly, The Mercury, Federation Concert Hall, Beethoven Symphony No. 9, The Australian Red Cross Bushfire Appeal

"Purcell conducts the 24-piece orchestra with crystalline clarity, lilting rhythm and passion."

Michael Grossberg, Theatre Critic
Columbus Dispatch, USA

"Conductor Kevin Purcell has a fine ear for sonority, and...the recording is demonstration standard, with great perspective."

Colin Clarke
Fanfare

As composer:

"The Stranger From Seville...brings alive a place and its people as few musicals these days, particularly at NYMF, are able to manage. It's in many ways...dazzling."

Matthew Murray, Talkinbroadway.com

"Kevin Purcell and Victor Kazan's The Stranger From Seville has a lot going for it: ...featuring a score of vibrant flamenco music...has the premise of a truly great romantic musical."

Zachary Stewart, Theatermania.com

"The Stranger From Seville is an exceptional musical with Book & Lyrics by Victor Kazan and Music by Kevin Purcell...The traditional, well-executed score features music that is contemporary and uplifting, with Flamenco and Mariachi influences."

Marcina Zaccaria, TheaterPizzazz.com

"The music...is glorious sung by voices that understand musicality. This dynamic score by Kevin Purcell is based on Gypsy Flamenco, Latino and regional Mexican infused styles."

T2conline.com (Times Square Chronicles)

Press &

